Nazi Officials Again Warn
England That They Will Accept Challenge

By International News Service

BERLIN, Sept. 10 — British bombs exploded in the heart of Berlin during a 40-minute Royal Air Force raid today while Nazi planes carried out a fresh and "successful" attack on London.

The sectors of Berlin hit included Moabit, less than a mile from the Tiergarten. It was the second time that Moabit, where the Berlin criminal courts are located, has been struck in a British raid.

(Editor's Note—Located in this same area was the Moabit Hospital, at one time the largest Jewish hospital in all Europe. After the advent of Hitler to power Jews were forbidden entrance to the hospital and Nazi physicians and surgeons replaced the former staff.)

Damage in the Moabit area was light. German authorities said, but bombs dropped on other northern sections of Berlin proper and in the suburbs set fire to houses.

Nazi officials lost no time in warning that new reprisals would follow this latest attack on Berlin. A spokesman said—

"Berliners, remembering Chancellor Hitler's promise of thousand-fold retaliation, accept the new British challenge."

An earlier statement said that enemy planes had penetrated over northern Germany and "dropped bombs on various places, including some northern Berlin suburbs. A number of apartment houses became the victims of deliberate enemy attacks on non-military objectives."

Berlin's air raid warning sounded at 1:45 a. m. The all clear came 40 minutes later.

MAINE REPUBLICANS
HAIL G. O. P. VICTORYElect U. S. Senator, Governor and Three Members of Congress

WOMAN TO CONGRESS

AUGUSTA, Maine, Sept. 10.—(INS)—Maine Republicans today hailed their sweeping victory at the polls in the nation's first election of the year as the "Down East" answer to third term aspirations of President Roosevelt.

By huge pluralities, ranging up to better than 3 to 1 in some sections, the Republicans elected a United States Senator, Governor and three members of Congress, one a woman. By the size of the vote, despite the smallest turnout in years because of rain, Maine told the nation she could, as in 1936, cast her ballot for the Republican presidential candidate. Four years ago Maine and Vermont were the lone states in the GOP column.

A Republican majority of 50,000 for U. S. Sen.-elect Ralph O. Brewster and over 70,000 for governor-elect Sumner Sewall in Maine's first-in-the-nation State wide election today returned an

Nazi Bombers

LONDON, Sept. 10—Spent cartridge shells and a few bombs dropped in London's scarred streets today following the third straight night-long raids by German planes which blasted three hospitals, started numerous fires and partially disrupted transport.

While a heavy toll of casualties was reported in last night's 57th raid on London, authorities said the figure would be considerably less than that of Saturday or Sunday night. In those attacks, a total of 600 persons were killed and 2,500 injured.

It was conceded, however, that as the attacks continue the toll will soon overtake the total of 1,075 dead which Prime Minister Churchill officially announced for the entire month of August.

Defend Trade of Destroyers

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 10 — President Roosevelt's trading of 50 over-age American destroyers to Great Britain for naval bases was defended today as entirely constitutional and within the bounds of international law.

The destroyer-naval base deal was analyzed at the lawyer's 63rd annual meeting by James W. Ryan, of New York, chairman of the group's committee on law protecting Americans and their property in foreign countries.

Ryan pointed out that under the Constitution the President is the "proper person to determine what is urgently necessary for national defense and take the necessary steps accordingly." Congress was not required to participate in the destroyer deal, he said, because an appropriation of funds was not necessary in the transaction.

Previously, William S. Culbertson, former U. S. Ambassador to Chile, called for an "end to pretense and hypocrisy" in our diplomatic relations by "frankly admitting" the present war crisis has nullified the present neutrality laws.

The Doylestown Methodist Church has been redecorated throughout and opened Sunday with a service of rededication.

The ceiling is done in light ivory and the walls are a light buff which is in striking contrast to the darker colors that once prevailed. The pews and other furniture have been polished giving the appearance of an entirely new building and equipment.

This decorating in lighter colors has greatly increased the beauty and effectiveness of the new indirect lights recently installed.

Rev. Lurwick Chooses As Fellowship Topic "Love"

CORNWELLS HEIGHTS, Sept. 10—The Rev. George Lurwick, pastor of Wilkenson Memorial Methodist Church, addressed members of the Men's Christian Fellowship of Lower Bucks County on the subject of "Love" last evening.

Meeting in the Methodist Church here, the men were told by the speaker that "We should love God with all our heart, soul and mind, and give all our talents in His work. . . . We should love God in all places, at all times. We should not go where our conscience will bother us."

He added that "To love we should become well acquainted with what we love. To love God and Christ we should become well acquainted with what we love. To love God and Christ we should know them well." Examples to illustrate various points of his message were drawn from the group of disciples.

Howard Smoyer, Bristol, was the presiding officer; and numbers were given by the Calvary Baptist male quartet, Bristol, with Mrs. Jackson Bauer as accompanist.

The October 14th meeting in Bristol Methodist Church will be in the form of a father and son program, with an outstanding speaker.

The Willkie Campaign

Washington, Sept. 9. AS Mr. Willkie prepares this week to begin his real campaign, although the polls show him well in the lead, some of his supporters have lost much of the confidence with which they were imbued last month. But Mr. Willkie has lost none of his. Nor have those in closest touch with him been shaken in their conviction that he will win.

OPPRESSED by the horrors of the English bombings and the inevitable blurring of the domestic picture, a certain type of commentator has begun to blather that it is a hopeless fight and the country may as well reconcile itself to a third term. It will not weather another four years of Roosevelt rule and the whole campaign is based on fraud and saturated with false pretense. Nevertheless, it is not possible to beat the combination of a million Federal jobholders, the WPA, the defense billions, the unsavory city machines and a President posing as the Indispensable Man, aloof from politics and appealing to the patriotism of the people while at the same time he personally directs his campaign from the White House. That is the argument. The answer to it is, Bosh.

IT is true there has been a seeming lag in the Willkie campaign and that some of the Old Guardsmen who opposed him at the convention are still sour and sore. But the lag is as natural as the discontent of the old reactionaries, who were pushed aside at Philadelphia, is harmless. So far as the lag is concerned, there are two things to be said—first, that it is being heavily exaggerated by the third-term propagandists; second, it ignores the fact that the election

BOROUGH COUNCIL MEETS
IN A BRIEF SESSIONAdvised Not To Assume Responsibility in Connection
With Blood Donors' Ass'n

ROUTINE BUSINESS

Borough Solicitor Howard I. James last night advised Borough Council that under the law the Borough should not assume any responsibility in connection with the Blood Donors Association.

The Blood Donors Association, last month, asked council:

If the Blood Donors Association could use the municipal building for storage of equipment and meetings?

Would the borough work in an insurance with their previous contract to cover the men and equipment with condition that the organization still remain independent of borough authority?

Would it be possible for the borough to sponsor the association with a courtesy and identification card bearing the borough seal and signatures of main officials? This card to be similar to the one issued by Mercer County Dept. of Courts and Charities.

The letter was referred to the Borough Council.

MANY DRIVERS PLEAD GUILTY TO DRIVING
WHILE INTOXICATEDCourt Puts A Stop To Lenient Sentences Which Have Been Given In The Past

JUDGE GIVES WARNING

Advises Drivers To See Bank
Account Before Driving Car
While Intoxicated

DOYLESTOWN, Sept. 10—Without liability insurance or any other kind of protection for the injured party, marched yesterday's parade of drunken drivers into the Bucks county criminal court and pleaded guilty as Judges Hiram H. Keller and Calvin S. Boyer put a stop to lenient sentences. In almost every instance, the person pleading guilty for driving while drunk, had failed to pay the damages to the owners of cars damaged, and in most cases they carried no insurance, only to protect themselves.

"After this," Judge Boyer remarked, after hearing testimony in one case early in the day, motorists who continue to drive while intoxicated, had better first look into their bank accounts before drinking. If you have a balance of $500 in bank, you may get by and you may not after paying your fine and costs and the damage to the other fellow. That's what is in store for drunken drivers in the future."

Judge Boyer directed his remarks during the hearing of the case of Michael Marks, Newportville, who pleaded guilty to driving while drunk after a beer party at his home, at 1:50 a. m., July 14. The unusual part of this case is that Marks struck a car driven by Wesley Breen, who is also in Court this term charged with driving while drunk. When Breen goes on trial later in the week, Marks will testify against him as a Commonwealth witness. Private J. S. Swan, of Penna. Motor Police, made the "double-header" arrest. Marks told Judge Boyer that he was arrested once before for disorderly conduct.

A sentence of 12 months to 3 years in the Bucks County Prison was imposed. Breen's car was damaged to the extent of $103.

Bucks county's record-holder for drunken driving is held by Howard M. Smith, Nesquehany, who pleaded guilty yesterday before Judge Boyer to driving while drunk on July 9 when he was arrested near his home. This is the fifth time he has been in the Bucks County Court for driving while drunk. In 1927 he was fined $200 and costs. In 1930, Smith paid another $200 and costs on his third trip. In 1933 Smith was sentenced to 6 months to 1 year in prison. His first offense some years ago, was also mentioned in court. This was his fifth.

Judge Boyer, in passing sentence, wasted no breath, he remarking

GAINS FROM ADVERSITY

"It should be remembered that America's greatest strength and its greatest contributions to mankind have come from its days of adversity, not its days of prosperity. Religious liberty came out of the bleakness of a Rhode Island winter. Political liberty was born in the snows of Valley Forge. Personal liberty for all Americans is a heritage of the dark night of the Civil War. Not until the trying days of the great depression did we gain as a nation an economic and social consciousness."

These words, spoken by the Rev. Dr. Hillyer Straton of New York City, son of the late Dr. John Roach Straton, should bring considerable encouragement to those who look with fear upon the future, particularly at the huge defense job facing the United States with its attendant hardships and sacrifices. The subject of Dr. Straton's sermon was "Why Should God Bless America?" in which he treated of the song now so widely sung.

"Too many Americans have felt that God is with us because of our fatness—our vast material resources. Our use of the resources with which we have been blessed will determine whether God will be with us. As never before in her history America needs a return to personal, national and international righteousness. Our whole 130,000,000 people can sing 'God Bless America' until they are hoarse, but God will only bless us as we are willing to share our blessings with others."

A few good thoughts to remember when Irving Berlin's song is sung.

HITLER IN ROMANIA

Those mechanized divisions which Hitler has said he will send to Rumania to guarantee that nation's shrunken frontiers will stand for no money business from Hungary, the Rumanian peasants armed with pitchforks, the small fraction of Rumania's army of 1,300,000 which threatens to go on fighting, or anyone else.

When General So-and-So, the pro-Hitler military dictator of Rumania, forced the abdication of King Carol a few hours after Carol had assented to the military dictatorship, Hitler's conquest of Rumania was complete, and a steady stream of oil from the British-owned oil fields in Rumania was guaranteed for the Nazi military machine. Rumania, like Czechoslovakia, Poland, Denmark, Norway, Holland, Belgium and France, is now completely Nazi-dominated. Its foreign policy will coincide completely with that of the Axis powers. Its domestic policy will be tied into that of Germany with the principal purpose of supplying the Nazi military machine.

Thus Germany's frontiers are extended, for all practical purposes, far to the southeast. Hungary is just the same as non-existent as a barrier. Germany is now creak by fowl with Russia in the Lower Danube and Black Sea areas, is flush up against Turkey and can, if the fortunes of war suggest it, make a grand clean-up of the Balkans. Germany can organize a drive, if necessary, over Turkey into the Near East, with the prize some rich oil fields.

The battle of Britain going badly, Germany may well undertake that enterprise and indeed must, for Mussolini unaided will never be able to make much hay in that quarter.

Now its combination plane-automobile that's being developed. A parachute as well as roller skates will be standard equipment for the gals from now on.

Joseph Doran, a minor, and his parents, Joseph P. and Marie Doran, 2216 East Haggett street, Philadelphia, who claim an additional $10,000 in their own right, have named Madeline L. Walsh and George J. Walsh, trading in the name of the Penn Valley Park, Treviso, the defendants in an action in trespass in the Court of Common Pleas here.

According to the statement of claim, the minor plaintiff was "lawfully and properly riding in and upon one of the seats in the ferris wheel" May 30th when he was injured.

He suffered a compound double fracture of the right arm and other injuries.

Anna R. Pahlman has named her husband, Walter A. Pahlman, the respondent in an action in divorce, charging him with cruel and barbarous treatment beginning July 16th.

"Symphonic Styling offers, for the first time in a full line of motor cars in standard production, complete harmony between the interior shades of upholstery and trim and the exterior body colors. Basically, the new 1941 Hudson interiors are styled in three color combinations, grey, green and tan—the one included in any car being determined by the exterior color. For example, if tan is the basic color harmony selected, not only the exterior body color but the upholstery, headlining, trim, carpets, floor mats and instrument panel will also be in harmonizing shades of tan. Color harmonies in grey and tan are standard in the new Hudson Six, in the lowest price field, while all other models, beginning with the new Super-Six, have all three.

"The ensemble effect achieved by Symphonic Styling is entirely new in motor cars and is an application of the same harmonious color trends observed in well-planned home furnishings, ensembles in women's apparel, and the like.

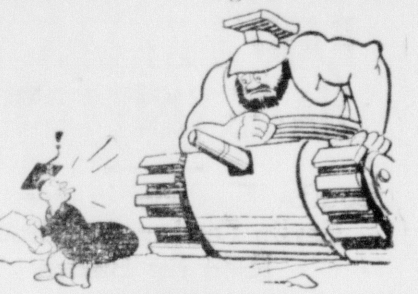

"In the lowest price field for 1941 Hudson offers a new 92-horsepower Hudson Six, on a wheelbase increased to 116 inches, three inches longer than previously, with a longer, lower body of new design, increased performance and an extensive list of refinements and improvements. A still lower priced model, the Hudson Six Traveler, with the same power and wheelbase, completes the company's entries in the lowest price ranges.

"Just above this lowest priced line is a new 102-horsepower Hudson Super-Six, with a wheelbase increased to 121 inches and a further group of 1941 advancements.

"An entirely new series of models, known as the Hudson Commodore Series and presented as 'America's Lowest Price Fine Cars,' rounds out the 1941 line. Headline offerings in this group are the new 128-horsepower Hudson Commodore Eight, mounted on 121-inch wheelbase, and its companion car, the Hudson Commodore Six, of 102 horsepower, which is identical in practically every respect except power plant. In this series the new Commodore Eight Custom Coupe, on 121-inch wheelbase, are presented as the most luxurious cars Hudson has ever built."

New Style Idea Featured in 1941 Hudsons

This new 1941 Hudson Six Sedan features longer, lower body design, longer wheelbase and a new styling development called Symphonic Styling which appears for the first time in standard production and is offered to buyers at no extra cost, even in the lowest price field. This model is mounted on 116-inch wheelbase, 3 inches longer than previously, and is powered with a 92 horsepower engine.

Today's Quiet Moment

(By Howard L. Zepp, Th. M.)

Life sometimes gets stale; we grow tired of old clothes, old recreations, old stories, old things. Give us that sense of fellowship with Three that we may find a source of renewal. Then the duty we tire of, we shall rejoice in doing; the task we found hard, will not be hard after all; the trivial and the commonplace will take on new luster and new significance. Amen.

Ray K. Hagenbuch attended itinerant classes in farm mechanics at Schwenksville, last week, under the direction of Louis M. Roehl, an authority in Agricultural Engineering from Cornell University. These classes are sponsored by the Rural Education Department of the Pennsylvania State College.

With more than 5,000 school children from every section of Bucks county in attendance, the 18th annual Doylestown Fair opened its gates this morning for five days and nights, with over 10,000 separate exhibits forming the largest and finest exposition in the history of the fair.

This is "Bicycle Day" at the fair, with a bike parade and a number of bike races scheduled for this afternoon to determine the Bucks county girl and boy champions. Tomorrow will be "Doylestown Day" and a homecoming for many former residents of Bucks county. The special program of harness racing will get under way Wednesday with the two-year-old trot, two-year-old pace and the 2:24 pace scheduled. All classes are well filled according to Race Secretary Harry W. Kelly.

The antique show this year is twice as large as last year because of the fact that all dealers are barred from exhibiting for prizes. This rule has brought hundreds of the finest pieces from Bucks county's old colonial homes. There is also a real painting exhibit this year for the first time with many Bucks county artists in the show.

Members of the Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs of Doylestown will meet on the fair grounds tomorrow night in the Friendship Thimble Social Building for dinner, at seven p. m.

Friday will be "Thrill Day" at the fair with an afternoon program by Lucky Teter and his Hell Drivers. The fair is open every night with a presentation of "Revue Moderne," a remarkable stage show staged by George Hamid, owner of Hamid's Pier, Atlantic City.

EDGELY, Sept. 10.—Final plans have been made for the annual outing of the Edgely Rod and Gun Club which is to be held Sunday at Lane's Park, here.

FRANKLIN AND MARSHALL FACES TOUGH SCHEDULE

LANCASTER, Sept. 10.—(INS)—Faced with the toughest schedule in its history, Franklin and Marshall gridders are undergoing two stiff daily practice sessions until classes begin.

Coach Alan M. Holman, former Ohio State quarterback and coach of the Diplomats for the past 10 years, summed up the 1940 prospects in these words:

"We'll have a good ball club this year and we'll give them all a run for their money."

Optimistic over the season outlook, Holman appeared satisfied with the attitude of his charges as they drill.

"I feel that the boys are winning more determined to produce winning football than they were last year," he said. "Last season they came back just for the sake of playing, but this year they seem to have considerably more determination to win."

Returning to the squad are Stanley Holmes, captain; Kenneth Anderson, Crawford, N. J.; Jack Bell, Windsor; Alexander Schibano, Freehold, N. J.; David Irvin, Narbeth; Bigler Irvin, Sunbury; Emmett Simpson, Pittsburgh; James Emery, Philadelphia; Frederick Fox, Lebanon; William Farakas, Windber, and Mike Kenney, Mike Suchena, John Quick and Bill Manotti.

The Diplomats open the season Sept. 28 with Lebanon Valley College and will meet Dartmouth at Hanover, N. H., in the second game. New York University and Carnegie Tech are also on the 1940 grid schedule.

Nazis Again Raid London

London, Sept. 10.—A new air raid alarm, the 58th of the war, sounded in London at 7:55 a. m. today.

Heavy anti-aircraft fire followed the sounding of the alarm and within five minutes British and German planes engaged in fierce combats over the city. Heavy bursts of machine gun fire were heard.

The roar of zooming planes hidden by low cloudbanks came through to roof-top watchers louder than any previously heard while the chatter of machine guns was incessant for the first few minutes after the sirens sounded.

The air battle soon moved off to areas more distant from the capital's hub.

old fashioned GOP victory in the Pine Tree State.

Congressman Joseph W. Martin, GOP national chairman and campaign manager for Republican presidential nominee Wendell Willkie, had asked for a 75,000 Republican majority in Maine.

Sumner Sewall, Bath banker and President of the State Senate, was elected governor by a margin of 3 to 1 over his Democratic opponent, Fulton J. Redman, former Portland publisher. Sewall easily led the drive for votes, topping Congressman Ralph O. Brewster (R) who was elected to the United States Senate, succeeding the veteran Frederick Hale, who is retiring after 24 years' service. Brewster won by a margin of 2 to 1 from Louis J. Brann (D) who, like Brewster is a former governor.

Two Republican Congressional incumbents won re-election. Mrs. Margaret C. Smith of Skowhegan who filled the unexpired term of her late husband, Clyde Smith, won from Edward J. Beachamp (D) of Lewiston. In the first district James D. Oliver (R) was re-elected, winning easily from Peter M. MacDonald, Rumford Democrat. In the third district, Frank Fellows (R) defeated Thomas N. Curran (D), Bangor attorney, for the seat vacated by Senator-elect Brewster.

Home and School League Meets at Tullytown

TULLYTOWN, Sept. 10.—The first meeting of the Home and School League for the 1940-41 school year was held in the school last evening. In the absence of the president, Mrs. Helen Nichols, the meeting was in charge of Mrs. Rose Napoli, vice-president. The meeting opened with the Lord's Prayer, followed by the singing of "God Bless America," led by Roy Reese. Resignations of Mrs. Slager of the refreshment committee and Mrs. Louis Cutchinal of the program committee were presented and accepted. Mrs. Louis Green was appointed by Mrs. Napoli for refreshments, and Mr. Zarr to the program committee.

After the business meeting, entertainment was provided by the school children. Little Peter Cummings sang "Good Evening," followed by a recitation, "School," by Eleanor Gerhart. Norman White played three guitar solos, "I Love To Tell The Story," "Old Rugged Cross," and "Rock Of Ages."

The junior band, consisting of four

Borough Council Meets In A Brief Session

ough Solicitor for his opinion and his reply was as follows:

September 3, 1940.
Hon. Clifford L. Anderson,
Burgess of Bristol Borough,
Bristol, Pa.

My dear Burgess Anderson:
In relation to your inquiry concerning "Blood Donors Association" I beg to advise you that if this Association is sponsored by the Borough, then certainly the Borough should be covered by insurance, but the rate I have no doubt would be quite high. In fact, I doubt exceedingly whether or not the Borough has any right or authority to obligate itself to become liable for an independent organization which is no part of the Borough Government. In other words, the Borough is limited to its municipal functions and should only become responsible for such branches which are essential to its municipal government.

In relation to the use of the building by either this or any other Association, that is a question for your Property Committee.

I am compelled to advise you that under the law the Borough should not assume any responsibility in connection with this organization.

Yours very truly,

HOWARD I. JAMES.

The question of use of the building for meetings and storage of equipment was upon motion referred to Finance and Public Property Committee.

Borough council was called into session by Burgess Anderson, last night, due to the absence of Dr. J. Fred Wagner, the president. William Warner was selected to act as secretary pro tem. The councilmen absent were Wagner, Wichser and Mitchever.

Police committee reported making 12 arrests during the month. Six were fined, two discharged, one committed to the county jail, one held for court, one turned over to the Phila. police, and one turned over to the Penna. Motor Police. Seventy-two lodgers were sheltered, one arc and nine incandescent lights were reported out and five were fined for parking violations and none discharged.

Clothing project reported the distribution of 1,193 pieces of clothing during the month of August.

Requests for permits were received to hang signs at 340 Dorrance street and 840 Beaver street. Requests were referred to street and highway committee with power to act.

Request of Rose Conca to have occupation tax refunded on a property at 28 Fourth avenue was referred to tax collector, Louis B. Gorton.

New Fire House Sponsors To Meet at Croydon

Many prizes will be awarded to the winners. The program committee also announces that merchants of Croydon and Bristol have donated generously to the cause and there will be plenty of refreshments for all who attend. The entire gates proceeds will go into the new building fund.

"Firemen and their aids are preparing to serve 1,000 people, since indications point to that attendance," George Sottung, treasurer and ticket committee chairman said. "We believe this affair will top any picnic ever held by any Croydon organization and we are preparing to make it a grand success and a day of enjoyment to be remembered by those attending."

Charles J. Winchester, Fire Company president, last night issued an invitation to all residents who might be interested in furthering the building of a new firehouse, to attend the meeting tomorrow evening at eight o'clock. His announcement stated: "The project we are about to undertake is something that is greatly needed in our community. Our present building has become outmoded and is retarding our progress. We look for and need the assistance of everyone and so, to anyone who might be interested in our progressive movement I extend an invitation to attend this meeting, and above all to attend the picnic."

According to tentative plans the new building will be erected at State Road, and Paterson avenue on the ground, now owned by the firemen. It will be a brick structure and will contain housing room for apparatus and equipment, a recreation room for members and a large auditorium for use of organizations and any individuals who might care to use it. Croydon at the present time does not have such an auditorium. It is planned to have a built-in stage for plays, commencement exercises or any such affairs held in the community. The hall will be large enough to hold dances and card parties.

Shortly after the picnic the Sponsors will announce the next step in the drive for funds. A slogan, "Help us build for your protection," was devised by the publicity committee and will be used throughout the campaign.

Many Drivers Plead Guilty To Driving While Intoxicated

"the only thing to do in your case is to protect the public," and sentenced Smith to pay the costs and serve 1 to 3 years in the Bucks County Prison. Testimony was produced to show that Smith's driver's license had been revoked back in 1933 but that he kept on driving just the same.

Theodore R. Fisch, Philadelphia chef, who has worked for the same firm for 12 years, told Judge Boyer that he had been arrested in Trenton, but had no accident when he was arrested for driving while drunk on August 26 in Falls township. Judge Boyer suspended sentence on condition that Fisch pay a fine of $150 and costs, or serve 30 days to 1 year in prison. Fisch said he could not raise the money so he took the prison sentence.

Edward F. Brown, New Hope gardener, pleaded guilty before Judge Boyer to driving while drunk on August 22, a mile east of Lahaska on Route 202. Brown, who told the court that he was injured on the head a short time before taking "three shots of Scotch," spent the night in the Doylestown Emergency Hospital under observation. Brown said that he was injured while at work and does not remember getting in his car and driving away. He paid $55 damages to another motorist whom he struck.

The Court suspended sentence in Brown's case on condition that he pay the costs and $100 in lieu of a fine, and was placed on probation.

A 59-year-old huckster, Eugene Schlopsna, of Chalfont, was given a suspended sentence by Judge Boyer yesterday, on condition that he pay $1000 in lieu of a fine by next Monday, Sept. 16. He was also placed on probation for one year. Schlopsna, who pleaded guilty to driving while drunk in Doylestown on May 23, said that he was making an application for a $300 loan on his Chalfont bungalow to pay his fine, costs and attorney.

"I had been sick with intestinal grip and took a couple of drinks of whiskey," Schlopsna told the Court.

"What have you been drinking today," Judge Boyer asked the defendant, who was unsteady in his walk to the witness stand. "Nothing but water, your honor," Schlopsna replied. Judge Boyer told the defendant that in pronouncing sentence, he took into consideration that the defendant is 59 years old, and pleaded guilty.

Russell R. Schure, Quakertown, employed as a cabinet maker in Glenside, pleaded guilty before Judge Boyer to driving while drunk on July 15 in Quakertown. He paid the damages to the other party involved in the accident. Because of this fact and the accident fact that "he told the truth," according to Judge Boyer, a minimum sentence of $100 fine and costs and a year's probation was imposed.

Louis Hering, Bristol, a former constable of the Sixth Ward, pleaded guilty yesterday before Judge Boyer to driving while drunk on July 13 in Tullytown, when he was arrested by a patrol officer from South Langhorne. He told the Court that he had taken five beers near Morrisville. Several character witnesses were called in his behalf including County Detective Anthony Russo, Chief of Police Jones of Bristol, and his own attorney, Senator Howard I. James.

"This has been a lesson to me, you will never see me here on this charge again," declared Hering as Judge Boyer sentenced him to pay a fine of $100 and costs and placed him on probation for three years.

Lawrence Kuhn, Lansdale, pleaded guilty to driving while drunk on June 9. He was sentenced by Judge Boyer to serve 2 months to 3 years in the county prison. Kuhn told the court that he imbibed in twenty drinks, mixing beer and whiskey.

Mrs. Jennie South, Yardley, pleaded guilty before Judge Boyer to a charge of driving while drunk on July 27 in Morrisville when she was arrested by Chief Cooper. She was accompanied by a drunken man at the time, the officer testified. Sentence was suspended on condition that she pay $300 and costs in lieu of a fine, and placed on probation for 2 years, ordered to forfeit her driver's license and stay off of liquor for 3 years unless she wants to come into court and be sentenced heavily.

At the opening of the September term of criminal court yesterday, President Judge Hiram H. Keller, who charged the Grand Jury, appointed Albert M. Dowden, Bristol RD merchant, as foreman of that body.

Seven divorces were granted in the Court of Common Pleas yesterday by Judge Keller as follows:

Winifred B. Hay, South Langhorne, against Charles Hay, 8621 Tulpehocken avenue, Jenkintown, cruel and barbarous treatment.

Martin Hartman, Line Lexington, against Cristina Hartman, 1619 North 17th street, Phila., desertion.

Madalyn S. Nugent, Pineville, against Thomas Edward Nugent, 3rd, 1810 North 23th street, Phila., desertion.

Mabel Erb, 154 Green street, Sellersville, against Russell Erb, 304 Church street, Sellersville, cruel and barbarous treatment.

Norman Bachler, Richland township, against Carrie Buehler, Perkaskie, desertion.

Dorothea Pepe, 1104 Beaver street, Bristol, against Joseph Pepe, 2301 H street, Modesto, Calif., desertion.

Andrew Allen Porter, Milford township, against Stella Porter, East Rockhill township, cruel and barbarous treatment.

IT is still two months off and the only speech Mr. Willkie has made was his acceptance speech on August 17. IT is still two months off and the only speech Mr. Willkie has made was his acceptance speech on August 17.

A SOUNDER strategy for Mr. Willkie would seem not to be too highly dramatic at the start, to work up to the climax of his campaign and avoid having it come too soon. It is true he has a formidable opponent, equipped with immense assets. Neither the country nor Mr. Willkie knows whether he is capable of overcoming these, but it does seem unreasonable at this stage to be disappointed because it has not already happened. The fact is that recent developments seem to open pretty wide the door for Mr. Willkie to drive home the real issues in this fight.

IN a few days he will start West on his first speechmaking tour as a candidate. If by the time he turns East again he has not been able to impress the American people with his capacity and make it clear that the war abroad and the defense program at home are the screen behind which the third-term candidate seeks to perpetuate himself in power and hide the frightful mess he has made of Federal affairs, then there may be good reason for discouragement upon the part of those who appreciate the essentially phony nature of the present White House performance.

—O—
CERTAINLY there is none now. On the contrary, there is reason to believe that the tide which turned against the New Deal in 1938 still runs. There was unmistakable evidence then that after six years of glamor and glitter, of unlimited spending and unparalleled demagoguery, the people, disillusioned and fed up, were facing in the other direction. Every test since has confirmed that view. Only the war has afforded opportunity for the fake draft and promulgation of the Indispensable Man theory upon which the third-term effort is based. There is yet, however, to be advanced a single reasonable argument as to why a voter who feels that Mr. Roosevelt has demonstrated his incapacity and untrustworthiness as a peacetime President should want him as head of the nation when the threat of war compels it to embark upon a great program for defense. Instead, he would appear less, rather than more, desirable under those conditions.

Could This be a 1940 Model?

It could be . . . but, thanks to advertising, it is not!

With various models selling from $950 to $2,000, this was the popular low-priced car in 1905. The few who could afford motoring, chugged along dusty roads at speeds of 15 to 20 miles an hour.

Their cars had no tops . . . no windshields . . . no spare tires . . . none of a score of accessories essential to modern motoring. Starters were hand cranks . . . brakes were far from the quick-acting, four-wheel safety of today.

What part did advertising have in changing the motor car? Simply this: Advertising created demand among those who could afford luxuries. Demand brought increased sales. Increased sales brought large-scale production and lower prices.

Lower prices opened new and wider markets . . . inspired competition. Competition demanded research.

Today a half dozen aggressive manufacturers, employing hundreds of thousands of workers, bid for the low-priced automobile market. The same manufacturer who sold his cars as high as $2,000 in 1905 now delivers his leader at a price near $600.

The automobile, thanks to honest advertising and research, today is available to those with modest incomes. Advertising has given us cars with smooth, powerful motors, steel bodies, shatterproof glass, safe brakes and luxury beyond the fondest dreams of 1905. A real contribution to the American Way of Living!
